THE PAUL E. FLAHERTY ATHLETIC SCHOLARSHIP

The name of this scholarship, to be awarded annually is the PAUL E. FLAHERTY ATHLETIC SCHOLARSHIP. The scholarship is made possible through memorials in memory of Paul and contributions of the Flaherty family. Paul served many years as a manager, Sixth District Chairman, and Chairman of The American Legion State Baseball Committee. Paul's love for athletics, his love for young people, and his desire to help them get a good chance in life prompted him to donate funds to create this scholarship. Although Paul's first love was baseball, he felt that many deserving youth competing in other types of athletics should be afforded an opportunity to earn an American Legion Scholarship. This scholarship is open to any boy or girl who has participated in high school athletics.
